

Nada Riahi, a Tunisian Lawyer and the Country Manager of IDLO Tunisia Office has significant experience in improving access to justice and health care services for people living with HIV and key populations as well as leading sensitization activities in Tunisia and in the Mena Region with the aim to reduce Drug users related stigma and discrimination.

Also she had successful experience in managing projects focusing on the development/review of policy/legal frameworks, the promotion of coordination mechanism and the training of justice/security sector actors;