

LAUNCH OF THE WHO CONSOLIDATED GUIDELINES ON HIV PREVENTION, DIAGNOSIS, TREATMENT AND CARE FOR KEY POPULATIONS

SUNDAY, 20 JULY
15:45 - 17:45

cocktail is served at 17.45

Satellite session,
room Melbourne 1

CO-CHAIRS

Ruth Morgan Thomas
Global Coordinator of Global
Network of Sex Work Projects
(NSWP), UK

Chris Beyrer
Director, Johns Hopkins Center for Public Health & Human Rights and President-Elect IAS, USA

SPEAKERS

– Opening remarks

Hiroki Nakatani, Assistant Director-General, HIV, TB, Malaria & NTDs, WHO

– Introduction to the new WHO guidelines

Gottfried Hirnschall, Director, Department of HIV/AIDS, WHO

– New recommendations on PrEP

Fabio Mesquita, Director of HIV and Viral Hepatitis Programme, Ministry of Health, Brazil

– New recommendations on opioid overdose management

Ruth Birgin, INPUD, Australia, introduced by Nicolas Clark, Mental Health and Substance Abuse Department, WHO

– An often forgotten key population: issues for transgender populations

Kate Montecarlo Cordova, Chair of the Association of Transgender People in the Philippines (A.T.P.), the Philippines

– Working despite legal and social constraints: how effective programmes for key populations can be delivered in difficult environments

Keletso Makofane, Global Forum on MSM and HIV (MSMGF), South Africa

– The impact of implementing the WHO key populations guidelines

Timothy Hallett, Imperial College London, the United Kingdom

